

Special Days This Week:

AUGUST 8 - MEMORIAL OF SAINT DOMINIC, PRIEST: Dominic founded the Order of Preachers (Dominicans) in 1216. Priests of this Order were highly educated and could be sent where the need was greatest, fighting heresy and preaching the importance of the Sacraments. Dominic died in 1221, was canonized in 1234, and is a patron saint of the Dominican Republic, astronomers, scientists, and falsely accused persons.

August 9 - Memorial of Saint Teresa Benedicta of the Cross, Virgin and Martyr: In 1891, Edith Stein was born into a large Jewish family in Breslau, Germany (present-day Poland). A remarkable student, she received her doctorate at age 25. She was drawn to Catholicism and was baptized in 1922, spending the next 12 years teaching at Catholic institutions. In 1934 she joined the Carmelites in Cologne, taking the name Teresa Benedicta of the Cross. However, by 1938, Nazi antisemitism was widespread, and in 1942 Edith was arrested by the Gestapo and deported to Auschwitz where she died in a gas chamber. She was canonized in 1998 and is co-patroness of Europe.

AUGUST 10 - FEAST OF SAINT LAWRENCE, DEACON, MARTYR: Lawrence suffered martyrdom in 258. A defender of the Church in Rome, he was one of the most venerated Roman martyrs of the early Church and is a patron of Rome. He is mentioned in the Canon of the Mass (Eucharistic Prayer I).

AUGUST 11 - MEMORIAL OF SAINT CLARE, VIRGIN: At the age of 18, Clare heard a sermon by Francis of Assisi and committed herself to a life of Gospel poverty. At age 19, she received the religious habit and at age 22 she was made Abbess of the Poor Clares who modeled their life on the ideals of St. Francis, thus practising radical poverty. Greatly respected as a "new leader of women", Clare received papal approval for her own Rule the day before she died— the first Rule for religious life, written by a woman for women. Credited with many miracles, she was canonized two years after her death

August 12 - Memorial of Saint Jane Frances de Chantal, Religious: Jane Frances Frémion was born in France in 1572. She married Baron de Chantal and gave birth to six children. In 1601, her husband died and Jane Frances, after overcoming her initial depression, sought the spiritual dimension of her suffering. With her spiritual advisor, Francis de Sales, she founded the Congregation of the Visitation for women who wished to live a religious life but could not endure the austerity of the existing religious orders. Committed to working with the sick and the poor, Jane Frances died in 1641, having established about 85 monasteries.

August 13 - Memorial of Saint Pontian, Pope, and Saint Hippolytus, Priest, Martyrs: During a period of persecution, both Pontian, who had succeeded Pope Urban I in 230, and Hippolytus, who was a priest, a well-known scholar and theologian, were exiled to the unhealthy mines of Sardinia. It was there that they met each other. Hippolytus had rebelled against the Church but was reconciled through the efforts of Pontian. Hippolytus wrote many works, including a prayer on which our Eucharistic Prayer II is based. Both Pontian and Hippolytus died a martyr's death.

19TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Today's readings sing the praises of our ancestors in faith. Our forebears, we are told, trusted in God's promises. In the Gospel Jesus reminds his disciples to put their faith in him for, he says, "where your treasure is, there your heart will be also". This week we too are called to a deeper faith. As pilgrims on this earth, we are encouraged to remain alert and watchful to welcome the Lord who "is coming at an unexpected hour", inviting us to the wedding feast in our eternal homeland, the heavenly one that our forebears saw from afar, and which we begin to taste in each Eucharist.

Saint Baldwin writes of God's Love for Us: God says to us: 'Set me as a seal upon your heart.' It is as if he were saying "Love me as I love you, Keep me in your mind and in your memory, in your desires and yearnings. Remember, child, what kind of being I made you; how far I set you above other creatures; the dignity I conferred on you; the glory and honor with which I crowned you; how I made you just a little less than the angels. Remember also how much I suffered for you."

And I replied: "Lord, take away my heart of stone, a heart so bitter, and give me a new heart, a pure heart. Dwell in my heart and fill it, O God of my heart."

"If you're going to MUN this fall, be sure to check out the Catholic Chaplaincy

There are many students at Memorial University of Newfoundland who are not from St. John's, and MUN is so large it can be difficult for them to find the Catholic Chaplaincy, which is just entering its second year. I am hoping you can send the following message to parishes for insertion in their bulletins. "If you're going to MUN this fall, be sure to check out the Catholic Chaplaincy. My office is at UC 3006 (we're right beside the "Answers" office - this will make sense when you get there). We have a Facebook page at MUN Catholic Community and my email is ej\_mroz@yahoo.ca

Hope to see you there!

Sincerely,
Fr Joe Mroz SJ, MUN Catholic chaplain"
